Forecast For Northeast England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Thursday 08 Apr 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Rain, occasionally heavy overnight, Drier but colder by dawn.

This Evening and Tonight:
A band of occasionally heavy rain pushing south through the evening, with strong winds for a time, especially over higher parts. Drier conditions developing during the early hours, but becoming colder with easing winds. A slight frost possible by dawn. Minimum temperature -2 deg C (28 deg F).

Friday:
A bright, cold day but with long spells of sunshine. Isolated showers may develop through the day which could turn wintry over higher parts. Frosty overnight. Maximum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Staying cold over the weekend, with further wintry showers and overnight frosts. Turning milder Monday, with a strengthening breeze and a risk of showers or longer spells of rain.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.